MAP SHOWING SCENE OF EXPECTED SEA FIGHT

ALBEE MAN RUNS INTO WASHOUT; IS INJURED

S. R. HALE RETURNING HOME IN AUTO WHEN ACCIDENT HAPPENS.

(Special Correspondence.) ALBEE, Ore., Aug. 14.—S. R. Hale ran in a washout while going down the Yellow Jacket grade near Mountain Home last Thursday in his car and smashed his right front wheel, turning the car over and causing considerable damage to the machine. Mr. Hale escaped with a few scratches.

Alex Manning and family are spending a few days at the home of A. S. Quant. James Johnston passed through yesterday with four carloads of beef for the Portland market. Mr. C. J. Beckley has traded his ranch near Albee for property in the Walla Walla valley, where he expects to make his home in the future.

Owen A. Constant came in from Hermiston last week and is visiting at the home of his brother, James Constant.

PROSPECTS FOR NAVAL FIGHT NOT IMMEDIATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—Prospects for an immediate naval engagement off San Francisco by British and French warships on one side and two German cruisers on the other were eliminated by the arrival at Victoria, B. C., of the Canadian cruiser Rainbow and the British sloop of war Shearwater. The exact whereabouts of the French cruiser Montcalm was not known but it was believed en route north to join the Rainbow and Shearwater. The British gunboat Albatross was expected at Vancouver before night.

The German cruisers Leipzig and Nürnberg were reported 20 miles off the Golden Gate stripped for action and prepared for prize seizures. The Leipzig was expected to enter this port for coal, leaving the Nürnberg on guard outside. Just what the Leipzig will do after taking on coal here was not known.

Teachers Go to School

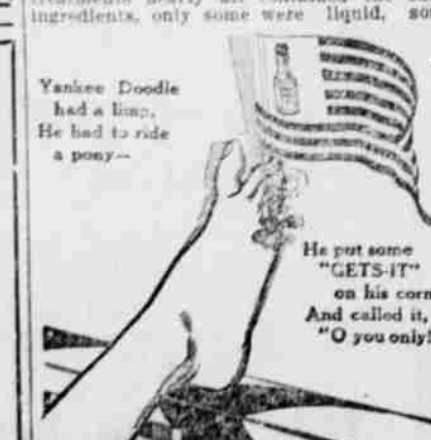

OREGON CITY, Ore., Aug. 14.—The Clackamas County Teachers' Training School opened at Gladstone Park with an attendance of 80. More are expected to enroll, bringing the total to nearly 100 within the next few days, according to the estimates of County Superintendent Calavan.

Many of the teachers are camped on the grounds while others live in Gladstone. The institute will close August 28.

Contract has been let for the capital highway in Washington county.

"GETS-IT" for Corns Sure as Sunrise

New Plan. Corns Shivel, Vanish. Until "GETS-IT" was born nobody was ever sure of getting rid of a corn. Corn treatments nearly all contained the same ingredients, only some were liquid, some plasters, some "wrappers" and some in salve form. Now comes "GETS-IT" with a new principle and a simple plan that never fails. This is why "GETS-IT" has grown in three years to be the biggest-selling corn cure the world has ever known. There's no more need of fusing with corns, no more digging or cutting. There's nothing to press down on the corn, nothing to inflame the flesh, to "pull" the corn or cause pain. Put two drops of "GETS-IT" on in two seconds. That's all. For any corn, on toes, on heels, on balls.

GERMAN FIELD GUNS PROVE INFERIOR TO THE FRENCH; AIM IS POOR

LONDON, Aug. 14.—Describing German operations in Belgium, the official press bureau of the British war office issued the following: "An engagement occurred north-west of Hasselt, Belgian cavalry and infantry opposing the Second German cavalry division, supported by a battalion of infantry and 12 guns.

"The Fourth cavalry division is reported moving toward Jodoigne but no German infantry is believed to be on the left bank of the Meuse except what is above mentioned.

"A battalion of Germans is reported entrenched at Vise.

"The Germans are planting heavy batteries north of Liege and have constructed a temporary railroad from Vise to the frontier, paralleling the border of Limburg, Holland.

"German cavalry is moving eastward through the Ourthe valley."

Of the Alsace situation the press bureau said:

"The French retreat from Mulhausen was well executed in the face of the fact that the German forces were four to one.

"The German field artillery proved inferior to the French, the former's shrapnel seemingly indifferently aimed. The German artillery is proving less effective than was expected."

Fifty Against Two. It is not reasonable to expect two weeks of cutting to overcome the effects of fifty weeks of confinement. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla along with you. It refreshes the blood, improves the appetite, makes sleep easy and restful.—Adv.

German Dead Cremated

LONDON, Aug. 13.—A dispatch to the Standard from Maastricht de describes the wholesale cremation of bodies of German soldiers killed at Liege, as told by fugitives arriving there.

During three successive nights after the fighting at Liege, the Germans collected their dead in heaps of 30. Funeral services were held and military salutes were fired over heap, which was then burned.

The officers explained to the men that this was necessary to prevent the bodies becoming a menace to the living.

Many other bodies were thrown into the Meuse, to float seaward.

Douglas Children to Get Prizes

ROSEBURG, Ore., Aug. 13.—The Douglas county fair board appropriated $250, with which to purchase prizes for the winners of the school children's exhibits at the industrial fair to be held in conjunction with the county fair in September. Local merchants will be asked to donate other prizes for the children's contests.

"Hoppers" Eat Cornelius Crops

CORNELIUS, Ore., Aug. 14.—A swarm of grasshoppers has invaded the ranch of Roy Cook, one mile north of town, and his entire potato crop is endangered. Similar reports of devastation by these pests are being received here from the surrounding country.

Holy Land Wants Jews

ROCHESTER, Aug. 14.—A $1,000,000 society to help get the Jews back to Palestine may be organized.

This was suggested recently at the convention of the Federation of American Zionists in a letter from the Palestine bureau of the Zion executive committee signed by Dr. J. Ruppin, at Jaffa, in the Holy Land. It was read to the delegates by Louis Lipsky, chairman of the convention.

The writer told of the bureau's intention to establish new Jewish towns in Palestine. Land had been purchased in Haifa, Jerusalem and Tiberias for quarters similar to those of Tel Aviv, which is the center of the new Jewish community in Palestine. He wrote that Jewish immigration was constantly increasing and that hundreds of Jewish laborers were employed.

Oregon Pioneer Is Called

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 14.—E. J. Loose, Oregon pioneer of 1852, died at his home in Polk county, near this city. He was 82 years old and is survived by the following children: Mrs. Cora Walling Lincoln; Charles Loose, Aumsville; E. J. Loose, Salem; Mrs. Minnie Root, Portland; W. H. Loose, Salem, and F. E. Loose, Salem.

Local Playhouses

What the Press Agent Has to Say of Present and Coming Attractions.

Orpheum—Saturday Only.

"Codes of Honor," two part Lubin featuring Ornie Hawley.

The story of a girl shoplifter whose husband is shot and she is sentenced to five years in prison. Her little boy is adopted by a wealthy family. In later years after her redemption, she is released and takes her son and goes west where she meets Judge Harrison with a son the same age as her own. The boys grow up and fall in love with the same girl. When Robert's future is almost ruined by an old pal of his mother's, but in the end a confession clears the boy and he marries the girl of his choice.

"Vases of Hymen." Vitaphone.

This is a real comedy with John Bunny and Flora Finch in the leading roles. The theme of the plot hangs on the fact that both are lovers of antiques and discover two vases in a shop window. They each buy one and through the shopkeeper they become acquainted and after many amusing situations the two ornaments prove to be veritable vases of Hymen.

"Broncho Billy and the Gambler," a thrilling western drama based on a husband's jealousy featuring G. M. Anderson and Marguerite Clayton.

Pastime Today.

America's sweetheart, Mary Pickford, is featured today in "A Twisted Trail." A Biograph one reel drama. A story of fate in the mountain wilds. Before the darling of the ranch leaves for the east to attend school the foreman reveals his love. A beautiful story of mountain life.

Mabel Trunnelle, Herbert Prior, Bigelow Cooper, Anna Lenard, Yale Benner, Allen Collins and Alice Forsythe are featured in Edison's two part drama, "Meg o' the Mountains." Meg lived down in Carolina in the shadow of the great Blue Ridge. When she had been a little younger, she has been winsomely and strangely beautiful—a gypsy-like elf of the woods and forests. Now she is mad. The neighbors said cruel things about Meg and turned their faces when she passed. And from her little son they shrank and turned away as from a thing accursed. Hugh Gregory loved Dorothy Westley. He incurred the bitter hatred of Simon Grant, who had long courted Dorothy. When Meg's little son ran away and Gregory found him and gave him back to his mother the crazed woman thought that she recognized in him the father of her boy. Grant plans to use this against Gregory so he himself can win Dorothy. His plans are upset for Meg, in a moment of understanding, identifies Grant and not Gregory as the guilty man.

John Bunny, Flora Finch, Charles Bryant, Mary Anderson, William Shea and George Stevens are featured in the Vitaphone comedy, "A Train of Incidents." Bunny goes to Arizona with his pupil. Flora also goes with her charge. Going they are strangers, returning they are married. The picture tells how it all happened.

"Hearst-Selig Pictorial" concludes this program.

Cosy—Friday and Saturday.

Tariton and Tariton have without doubt the best all-round musical act ever in this house. They have a number of musical novelties and oddities never before seen on the local stage, while the comedy work of the lady member of the team is unusually clever. Common old tomato cans are used to make fine music; their bell ringing is extra fine and the whole act is to be commended. They will be here Friday and Saturday, with matinee Saturday.

"Our Mutual Girl."

The 27th picture of the series, Margaret White on a trip to the New Jersey coast, manages to imprison herself in the tower of a high light house and is rescued with great difficulty. This makes an exciting number.

"Stronger Than Death." Two reel Thanhouser. A pleasing story of real life, with Mignon Anderson, Ethel Cooke and Harry Benham.

"The Face on the Barroom Floor." Keystone. Another of this company's funny offerings, featuring Charlie Chaslin.

All Star Program at Alta.

"The Right of Way," a two part pictureplay that is full of intrigue and intense interest. Many complications occur. An unscrupulous financier determines to get the right of way for a railroad which is being put through. He has little conscience in his operations and disregards the welfare of others in his transactions. Eventually he is forced to buy at an equitable price by a fair-thinking and business-like girl. The critics of the M. P. W. say this is a very good and well produced picture. The cast cannot be beat. Miss Talmadge has won a reputation for this sort of work and shows up to excellent advantage in this production. Her support is also of the highest order: Leo Delaney, being a popular young star and Van Dyke Brooke and Harry Northrup are also very capable actors.

We take pleasure in presenting Francis X. Bushman in a highly romantic story, "The Countess," from the Esmay studios with Beverly Bayne playing opposite. She is pursued by nihilists and he defends her by fighting her enemies hand to hand. We are sure this offering will please.

"All for Love," is a somewhat different kind of photoplay with the popular actor Romaine Fielding playing a comedy part, something entirely new for this versatile man. The comment on this picture say that he "gets over" unusually well and the picture is a scream.

Matinees every day, 2 to 5. Cool-off place in town.

Plans have been completed for a $25,000 high school at Rainier.

PROSPECTOR IS LATE IN DISCOVERING WAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—Among the thousands of Germans who handed in their names for service under the German Eagles was August Ochsenreuther, who heard yesterday for the first time that his country was engaged in a life and death struggle on the battlefields of Europe. Ochsenreuther had been prospecting for gold in the Feather river district, and on hearing the news he immediately reported for duty, saying:

"I will find some way to return to Germany even though communication be interrupted at present. I have served in both the German and French armies. I was a sergeant in the French foreign legion in the war against the Tuaregs in Tunis and in Algiers and took part in the storming of Antananarivo in Madagascar. My experience in both armies proves that the German army is far superior to the French and victory will follow the German flag."

A meeting will take place tonight at the German house to consider the steps to be taken by local Germans in regard to the raising of funds for patriotic purposes.

A committee will be appointed to provide the local press from time to time with a resume of war facts considered from the German point of view.

SCOTTISH FACTORIES FEAR WAR WILL RUIN

GLASGOW, Aug. 14.—Leading Scottish manufacturers are of the belief that they will sustain ruinous losses as a result of the war. A large part of their business has been done in Germany. The Germans recently insisted upon a speedy delivery of their orders and the manufacturers fear that they never will get their pay for the goods.

News Censorship Scored

LONDON, Aug. 14.—T. P. O'Connor, the Irish Nationalist, in the house of Commons again opened fire on the press censorship established by the British government. He said that thousands of dollars spent by American newspapers has been wasted in consequence of the censorship, and he suggested that trained newspaper men should be added to the staff of the censorship bureau.

The Right Hon. Charles Hobhouse, speaking in behalf of the British post-office authorities, disclaimed any responsibility for the censorship, over which he said the War Office exercised full and sole control. He said if there was any delay in forwarding messages after they had passed the censor, he was ready to do what he could in the matter.

Notables Among Refugees

SOUTHAMPTON, Aug. 14.—Chandler Hale, former Assistant Secretary of state of Washington, and William C. Eustis of New York, accompanied by their families, were among the 200 Americans who arrived here from Havre.

100 Spies Are Shot Down

BRUSSELS, Aug. 14.—Belgium has been covered with a network of German spies. Six hundred already have been arrested and 100 were shot.

Some of the German captured were wearing uniforms of gendarmes, civic guards soldiers and officers of the Belgian army. Many of the spies captured were armed with bombs and revolvers and were in automobiles bearing false numbers. They also had in their possession telegrams and letters with the counterfeit signature of the Belgian Minister of War.

Just before and after the fighting began private signs were discovered on bridges, military works and equiducts indicating that those structures should be blown up.

Severe precautions have been taken by military authorities and no one is admitted at the railway stations without military permits. Automobiles are halted at every mile.

Antwerp Seizes Austrian Ships

ANTWERP, via London, Aug. 14.—The Austrian steamships Zora and Praxattis were seized in port here.

Chicken Pot Pie

The Chef's Favorite

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

Some folks think that only "colored mummies" can cook chicken, but a trial of this famous chicken pot pie disproves that assertion. Every member of the family will thoroughly enjoy it.

One Chicken Pot Pie, Baked Dumplings
One fowl cut in joints; 1/2 cup flour; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; black pepper; 2 cups flour; 3 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; 1/2 cup shortening; milk or cream.

Cover the fowl with boiling water and let simmer until tender, then remove to a baking dish. Mix the 1/2 cup flour, salt and black pepper with cold water to a smooth paste and use to thicken the broth. Remove the fat from the top of the broth if necessary before adding the thickening. Pour this gravy over the fowl, until it is nearly covered, and reserve the rest to serve apart. Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt, three times; into this work the shortening and use cream or milk to make a dough, less stiff than for biscuits. Put this by spoonfuls over the fowl in the dish, which it should rest upon and completely cover. Let bake about 35 minutes.

When young, tender chickens are scarce, this presents a most satisfactory way of serving old fowls. Veal or lamb prepared in this manner is more appetizing than when served as a stew. Try this and the 99 other delicious recipes in the K C Cook's Book, a copy of which may be secured free by sending the colored certificate packed in the 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder to the Javina Mfg. Co., Chicago.
